Exhibitor & Visitor Online Registration Now Open

At this complex and uncertain time, Milipol teams are keen to reiterate that we remain fully mobilised to assist and support security professionals in their common and future projects and continue to offer them a service and events that rise to Homeland Security & Civil Defence expectations.

In this context, Milipol Qatar, the leading international event for homeland security and civil defence, will be the perfect platform to overcome today's challenges. It will allow the exhibitors to present their latest innovations and will represent a real business opportunity.

The industry-only event, which is under the patronage of His Highness the Emir of Qatar, Sheikh Tamim Bin Hamad Al-Thani, will be held at the Doha Exhibition and Convention Centre (DECC) from October 26-28.

Organised by Qatar's Ministry of Interior in partnership with Paris-based international event organiser Comexposium, acting on behalf of the GIE Milipol headed by Civipol, the consulting and service company of the French ministry of the Interior, the event is held under the authority of Qatar's Prime Minister and Minister of Interior, His Excellency Sheikh Khalid bin Khalifa bin Abdulaziz Al Thani.

"Technology solutions are at the core of modern Middle East homeland security policies. Their role is central for planning informed policies, taking adequate decisions in an ever-complex environment and protecting security operators. As a matter of fact, technology solutions are the essential auxiliaries for planning and managing major international events such as the FIFA World Cup 2022" says Préfet Yann Jounot, CEO of Civipol and President of Milipol events. This has led to increasing numbers of high-tech suppliers featuring ever more prominently in the Milipol Qatar exhibitor line-up.

Artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, mega events security, and crisis management technologies are globally impacting the security industry and are leading to major investment in upgrades and new project development for homeland security and civil defence.

Milipol Qatar 2020 will highlight an expansive range of leading-edge defence, security, monitoring and protection solutions designed to protect societies.

A powerful associated knowledge-sharing program will feature dialogues, case studies and debates on the Industry's challenges and opportunities.

"This event meets a large part of the growing security needs of the State of Qatar alone in line with the country's National Vision 2030," explained Marie Lagrenée, Milipol Events Director. "Milipol Qatar 2020 expects to welcome 254 exhibitors and 8,900 visitors".

The online registration platform for both exhibitors and visitors to Milipol Qatar are now open on www.milipolqatar.com with organisers looking to build on the record-breaking 2018 event.
